ACTIVITIES IN THE PARISH: as we have 3 Parishes within the 1 MISSION. Many groups and people very generously take the initiate to get involved or plan events, prayer groups, gatherings etc etc.... PLEASE contact Sharon in the office, or email, to have it entered in the Parish Diary. This diary is the backbone of 'holding things together' within the Mission for the priests. Every Tuesday morning there is a meeting to organise the week/masses ahead- the diary is vital.

This week the Parish Council has a letter of interest slip for all parishioners to have a look at. We have many Ministry roles, volunteers we would like to invite everyone to become involved in a small way within the Parish. What would I like to contribute? donate time, help out, or a talents you may wish to share.

Please return the slip via the Collection bags next week, or to the office. There will also be a box outside the Sacristy door (SPP) and a box on the table at OLOF in foyer of the church. Please take a minute and consider if you would like to be involved in the parish life.

Our new Assistant Priest is keen to get involved!

Reflection: 4 Sunday Ord. Time

This is the first of the miracles of Jesus recounted in Mark's Gospel and it is a significant introduction to the person of Jesus and the power he possesses. Only a few verses earlier, at his baptism, Jesus had been revealed as the beloved Son of God. In this short text, Mark contrasts Jesus and the authority of his teaching with that of the scribes. Jesus teaches in such a way that he makes a deep impression on his hearers. Clearly, this is because his authority and his wisdom come from God. Whilst his human audience may still be unclear as to the true identity of Jesus, this is not the case with his 'other-worldly' audience: the unclean spirits know exactly who Jesus is—the Holy One of God—and they recognise his authority and obey his command. They know that the power of the Almighty is greater than the power of the evil one.

In the ancient world many forms of mental illness were attributed to being possessed by 'evil spirits'.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus is often presented in confrontational situations with evil spirits, with the Jewish authorities and even with his own disciples when they fail to understand who he is and what his mission entails.

This text shows that where absolute good is, evil cannot remain.

In what ways today do we see evidence of the 'power of evil'? How are people held captive by this power in our world?

• In what ways can we speak and act with the spirit of Jesus against the evil we encounter?

'What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth?' What does Jesus want of you at this point in your life?

'I know who you are: the Holy One of God.' Is it difficult for you to make this claim?

Who do you think Jesus is? (The Summit)
