THE GOULBURN MISSION
 [Mission Established 2012] 21.7.18
MARY QUEEN OF APOSTLES
 [Parish Established 1839]

16 Sunday Ordinary Time YrB

Entrance Antiphon: See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

Responsorial Psalm: 22. R. v.2 (Crimmond)
 R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Left: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit Right: He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff, with these you give me comfort.

Left: You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.

Right: Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord’s own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!
 My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia!

Readings: 1/ Am 7:12-15 2/ Eph 1:3-14
Gospel: Mk 6:7-13

Communion Antiphon: (only said if NO MUSIC)

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful, has made a memorial of his wonders; he gives food to those who fear him.

Vocation Prayer:

We come before you humbly asking for your blessing.

Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard.

Look with favour on our parishes, and bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call to priesthood, diaconate and religious life. Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.

Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love, and especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.

Give us all the time and energy to assist in the work of the Goulburn Mission.

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

Take this holy sacrament to our brothers and sisters. May they rejoice in knowing the loving care of Christ, the good shepherd.

Reflection:

16 Sunday

In last week's gospel, we read of the disciples being sent out on their mission to preach, cast out devils and cure the sick. Their mission has been a great success and now they excitedly return to tell Jesus of 'all they had done and taught'. They are weary but still the people come. They are so busy that they don't even have time to eat! Jesus is aware of their needs and insists that they find a quiet place to rest. But the crowds too have their needs and they follow Jesus and the disciples, yearning for answers to their problems. Jesus is also moved with compassion when he sees the needs of the people. They are like lost sheep who are desperately searching for truth but don't know where to find it, so he sets himself the task of teaching them and bringing them closer to that truth. Jesus meets the needs of both the disciples and the crowds and thus becomes the 'good shepherd' who will look after his flock.

Jesus regularly took time to be alone, to pray and to contemplate God. Here he invites his followers to do the same.

Jesus invites the disciples to take time out to rest after the exertions of their mission. All the major monotheistic religions have a day which is set aside as 'a day of rest'. While Jews, Christians and Muslims designate a different day for this rest, all endorse the idea of taking time out from a busy working life to reconnect with those things which are truly important – developing our relationship with the divine.
