Prayer for Vocations

Good Shepherd God
Help our people to know their vocation in life; be with them as they prepare for it.
Help us to recognise the presence of your wisdom in the men and women of our Parish.
Some you will call to be priests and deacons others to be consecrated in religious life.
Help them to overcome fear, unblock ears and still the noises that drown out your call.
Give them the Grace to respond generously and labour faithfully in caring for this world and all its people.
Give us all the time and energy to assist in the work of the Goulburn Mission.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning: As you take this sacred gift to our sisters and brothers who are unable to be with us today, may you appreciate that though your Ministry Jesus, 'the face of God's mercy', is being revealed to them.

Reflection 5 Sunday

'Whom shall I send? Who will be my messenger?'

'Here I am, Lord. Send me!'

This text tells Luke's story of the call of Simon to become a disciple of Jesus. Jesus already knew Simon; he had cured his mother-in-law after 'they interceded with him about her' (Luke 4:38). Jesus had already spent time in Capernaum, Simon's home town, and had performed miracles and cures. The large crowd who had witnessed these things now pressed on Jesus and he made use of the 'pulpit' of the boat. When asked to 'put into the deep', Simon, despite his misgivings, complies.
The sheer wonder of the unprecedented catch of fish hints that somehow the action of God is to be traced in this extraordinary event. Simon—now with his Christian name, Peter, added to his Hebrew name—confesses his unworthiness and addresses Jesus as 'Lord'. It is only then, in the face of Peter's faith, that Jesus reveals the vocation and the mission of the disciple, and Peter, James and John immediately accept that mission wholeheartedly. They leave everything and follow him.

The lake of Gennesaret is simply another name for the Sea of Galilee. It is also sometimes known as the Sea of Tiberias.

- This episode probably took place on the northwest corner of the lake near the village of Capernaum, where Simon Peter lived.
- The huge haul of fish is symbolic of the overabundance of good that is promised to those who believe in and follow Jesus. It is also a symbol of the abundance of the messianic banquet that Jesus brings.

Are there ways in which you are already sharing in the task of being a 'fisher' of others?

• In what ways are you being asked to 'put out into deep water'? What does this mean? Is this prospect a fear-filled one?

• Have there been occasions in your life when, like Peter and his companions, you were 'completely
