THE GOULBURN MISSION

[Mission Established 2012] 16/17 Feb.2019

MARY QUEEN OF APOSTLES

[Parish Established 1839]

6 Sunday Yr C

Entrance Antiphon: Be my protector, O God, a mighty stronghold to save me. For you are my rock, my stronghold! Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

Responsorial Psalm: 1:1-4. R. Ps 39:5

Response:

Happy are they who hope in the Lord.

Right: Happy indeed is the man who follows not the counsel of the wicked; nor lingers in the way of sinners nor sits in the company of scorners, but whose delight is the law of the Lord and who ponders his law day and night

Left: He is like a tree that is planted beside the flowing waters, that yields its fruit in due season and whose leaves shall never fade; and all that he does shall prosper.

Right: Not so are the wicked, not so! For they like winnowed chaff shall be driven away by the wind. For the Lord guards the way of the just but the way of the wicked leads to doom.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!

Rejoice and be glad; your reward is great in heaven. . Alleluia!

Readings: 1 Jer 17:5-8

2 1 Cor 15:12, 16-20

Gospel: Lk 6:17. 20-26

Communion Antiphon: (only said if NO MUSIC)

They ate and had their fill,
and what they craved the Lord gave them;
they were not disappointed in what they craved.

Prayer for Vocations

Gracious and loving God
We come before you humbly asking for your blessing.
Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard.
Look with favour on our parishes, and bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call to priesthood, diaconate and religious life.
Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.
Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love, and especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.
We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

May our brothers and sisters who are sick be assured through this Holy Communion of our love and the support of our prayers.

St Vincent de Paul Update

In September, October and November the St Vincent de Paul Conference continued to help those dealing with adversity, providing assistance that benefitted 356 adults and 289 children, mainly with food and grocery items.
In December the Conference was able to provide almost 150 families with Christmas packages, as well as maintaining the usual services .
Many thanks to all those who made donations in the weeks before Christmas. We would like to acknowledge the contributions from St Joseph's, Sts Peter and Paul's, St Mary's Crookwell and Trinity Catholic College as well as other organisations such as the Lions Club and radio 2GN whose generosity helped us to make Christmas a special time for so many families.

Reflection 6 Sunday

Luke takes care to alert us to who is present at this gathering. There are the newly formed twelve special friends of Jesus as well as many other disciples and both Jews and foreigners who come out of curiosity. The words of Jesus are meant for all but are especially addressed to his disciples.

Luke does not speak of 'the poor in spirit' or 'those who hunger and thirst for justice' as Matthew does. Luke is much more interested in the lived experience of those who are literally poor, hungry and suffering. They were the ones who were persecuted under the status quo of their day, and it was they who had an openness to the new order announced by Jesus' preaching of the kingdom. The powerful, who directed the established order of the day, could not bear such a challenge to their own position and thus they will 'drive you out, abuse you, denounce your name as criminal' for preaching the new order of God's kingdom. Such is the challenge to those who are disciples.

Both Matthew and Luke report this famous sermon of Jesus, but with slight differences.

- The main difference is that Luke balances the 'blessings' with a series of 'woes' aimed at would-be disciples who are still bound up with the signs of success in this world.

'The Beatitudes confront us with decisive choices concerning earthly goods; they purify our hearts in order to teach us to love God above all things' (CCC §1728). The church does not teach that it is wrong to be wealthy—in fact, it enshrines the right to own private property. What it does teach is the proper use of wealth. If acquiring wealth becomes an end in itself, it means that we have lost sight of what is truly important for our ultimate salvation—that is, our relationship with and fidelity to God. If we are fortunate enough to have wealth in excess of our needs (not our wants!), we have an obligation to share our good fortune with those who do not have enough even to meet their basic needs. (The Summit)
