You call each of us to live that life in a unique

So that we may truly become the witnesses of Bless all those you call: all single and married people

All priests and deacons, all sisters and brothers May we all become builders of your kingdom and sacraments of your love.

As we live out the mission of Jesus Christ through living our baptismal call

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Dear Parishioners

Last Thursday I met with members of the Finance Council, the Parish Council and the Restoration Committee.

There is some urgent work to be done near the sanctuary and this gave way to wider considerations.

In 1987 a detailed conservation report was commissioned for the outside of the building and this has been followed.

Our meeting was about the way forward to consider a Parish consultation leading to a similar detailed plan for the inside of the Old Cathedral.
To date any interior changes have been piecemeal.

The Archdiocese prefers that this be put on hold until a new PP gets on with the job. I agree with this.

In the meantime, The Restoration Committee is wound up in its present form until a new Archdiocesan/ Parish Committee is formed.
At the meeting I neglected to offer my heartfelt thanks for all who have served the Restoration project over many years.

I apologise if I have offended anyone by my thoughtlessness.

The urgent floor work will be financed through the maintenance budget.

Dermid

Lenten Program will be held at OLOF, beginning on 5th March at 10.00am.

Nb. Books due in any day to parish office.

Reflection 7 Sunday

Exploring The Word

In last week's gospel, the disciples learned that to be a faithful follower of Jesus, they must be committed to a new order. This week's text tells them how they must live in that new order; in a sense it provides the practical details. What Jesus is suggesting should not be confused with passivity or simply inaction or resignation in the face of persecution and injustice. Quite the contrary! What Jesus is suggesting is radical action. It demands that we act towards others without being asked, that believers offer friendship and pardon constantly, without asking or hoping for anything in return. In Jesus is located God's self-revelation, God's actions in and for the world, his plan for salvation and its fulfilment. Followers of Jesus must act in these ways precisely because they are the ways of God.

Turn the other cheek; love your enemies; do good to those who hurt you! Why should we? How can we? How challenging do you find this directive?

Did You Know?

This gospel contains the most challenging of all the Christian commandments and probably the most difficult to keep: love your enemies and do good to those who hurt you.

Making Connections.

Respond in a practical way to one of the commands of Jesus in this gospel—for example, pray for those who treat you badly; be compassionate to someone, or forgive someone who has wronged you.

Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
