THE GOULBURN MISSION

[Mission Established 2012] 13/14 April.2019

MARY QUEEN OF APOSTLES

Palm Sunday Yr C [Parish Established 1839]

Responsorial Psalm: 21:8-9. 17-20. 23-24. R. v.2

R My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Right: All who see me deride me.

They curl their lips, they toss their heads. 'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.'

Left: Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones.

Right: They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe. O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me!

Left: I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.'

Gospel Acclamation:

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Readings: 1/ / Is 50:4-7 2/ Phil 2:6-11

Gospel: Lk 22:14 – 23:56

Communion Antiphon:

(only said if NO MUSIC)

Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

Prayer for Vocations:

Christ the Good Shepherd, high priest of the Church, God the Holy Spirit, source of wisdom and understanding,

Guide young people as they discern their vocation, Give them the wisdom to discover your plan for them, and courage to embrace your will.

Give to the Church wise and holy priests, deacons and religious sisters and brothers,

So that your Gospel may be taken to the ends of the earth,

Your flock built up in faith and hope and love, and your name praised without ceasing. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

At the Last Supper, Jesus gave us the wonderful gift of his body and blood under the appearance of bread and wine. May our faith, and the faith, and the faith of those to whom these sacraments are taken, be strengthened by the Lord's entry into Jerusalem and the gift of his peace.

Readings next week: Easter Sunday

1/ Acts 10:34. 37-43 2/ Col 3:1-4

Reflection Palm Sunday

DID YOU KNOW

The institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper is reported in the gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke but not in John. In John (6:1-15), the setting is the multiplication miracle of the loaves. Instead, in John's Gospel, Jesus washed the feet of his disciples at the Last Supper (13:1-11) in an act of service.

All four gospels report the trials of Jesus before the Sanhedrin or governing council of the Jews and before Pilate, but only Luke tells of Jesus being sent to Herod.

Luke's Gospel emphasises the mercy and forgiveness of the Lord towards those who repent. Even on the cross, Jesus continues in this. He assures the repentant thief of his place in paradise. This incident is only reported in Luke's Gospel.

Jesus is crucified at Calvary, a Latin translation of the Semitic word Golgotha, which means 'skull'.

The centrality of the cross reveals that God, in Jesus, entered into human suffering and death and overcame the darkness. This death revealed for all time that God is in solidarity with all the pain of human beings, and that nothing can separate us from the love of God.

In our society, the idea of being 'selfless' is constantly challenged. Our culture of individualism emphasises the 'I' rather than the 'other'. But it is in self-giving and self-emptying that we find life.

Lord, into your hands I commit my spirit.

Reflect on these words and what they mean for you as you prepare for the Easter sacraments this week. (The Summit)
