We acknowledge the Ngunnawal peoples, Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples, who are traditional custodians and first peoples of this land. We pay respect to their elders past and present and to the memory of their ancestors. We acknowledge that they have occupied and cared for this land over countless generations and we celebrate their continuing contribution to the life of our city and region. We also extend our respect to all Aboriginal peoples living in our community.

Feel at Home

A hearty welcome to all of you on this Sunday of hospitality. It is surprising how poor people can often be hospitable to others. They offer their guests food and drink that they cannot afford for themselves. How hospitable are we to the guest, the stranger? Let us open our door and our hearts. It is perhaps Jesus himself who comes to your house. Be attentive to him. And remember how hospitable he is to us in the Eucharist.

The Archdiocese and all the parishes are migrating to a new IT provider. The Parish office will not have access to emails sent from 3pm Friday 18 July until Monday 21 July lunch time. Thank you for your understanding.

You can leave a message on the Parish Office phone 0459 394 813. This new mobile number will replace our landline in the next few weeks! So please make a note of the change of number.

The Parish Finance Committee has provided a table of Parish income and expenses; copies are available in the foyer.

Parish Safeguarding commitment: Our parish is committed to safeguarding and upholding the dignity and rights of all our children and vulnerable people. If you have concerns about these matters please contact Fr James, or our safeguarding volunteer Anne Hitchings through the parish office, or Maria Hicks ipss@cg.org.au the Manager for the Archdiocese's Institute for Professional Standards and Safeguarding
